

Professional Development Training

St Mark's Registered Training Organisation is offering two excellent training opportunities in 2012 for counsellors who wish to up-skill in the areas of Relationship Counselling or Supervision. These courses are designed for practising counsellors who wish to expand their range of counselling work, either into working with couples and families, or for those who wish to supervise counsellors.

The Supervision training also has a Pastoral stream for experienced clergy who wish to be trained in Professional Supervision of clergy and church workers.

These year-long courses are being offered in Sydney and Melbourne in 2012.

Vocational Graduate Diploma of Relationship Counselling

» Specialist training for those working with couples and families.

» All courses are delivered by highly experienced Christian counselling practitioners using experiential, inductive adult-learning techniques in small, face-to-face training groups.

- » Post graduate level training in the theory and practice of relationship counselling. Topics include working with domestic violence, conflict and family law matters.
- » This course will be delivered in weekly three-hour sessions.

Vocational Graduate Certificate in Supervision (Clinical or Pastoral)

- » Training in the theory & practice of Professional Supervision; offered in two streams:
 - Clinical stream for experienced supervisors and counsellors wishing to up-skill in supervision; meets PACFA Supervision training standards.
 - Pastoral stream for experienced clergy wishing to supervise clergy and pastoral workers.
- » This course will be delivered in 8 x 6 hour training sessions.

- » Proposed course venues for 2012 Central Coast, Pymble (NSW) and Yarra Plenty (Vic).
